How did you start your career?	I've started from the bottom, with the task of managing the company website. Over time, accordingly with my academic path and expertise, my duties and responsibilities have grown gradually, having the chance to see many different aspects involved in a company operating in the service sector.
Why did you choose a career at New Trends ?	I've chosen this path because creating, developing and managing different brands and the marketing process for every company of the group is for me a great opportunity to learn and a big challenge, especially considering the fact that , because it is a SME, there are greater responsibilities as every marketing/management decision has a major and visible effect on the company . This is for me very stimulating, as you have more freedom of choice and you can see your ideas having an impact on reality and on the market.
What is your current role/duties?	My main duties are assisting the board of directors and the commercial development of the various companies of the group, focusing on marketing strategy and sales management.
In your opinion, what are the qualities necessary for a successful career at New Trends ?	The real estate field is a "tough" one, with major challenges as fierce competition, intangible products/services that makes it difficult to create perceived value, brand positioning and a durable competitive advantage. Thus, fundamental qualities are creativity, responsiveness, a multitasking mindset, determination and proactiveness.
